SOURCE OF INFORMATION.

Bible records, tombstone inscriptions, newspaper notices, marriage licenses, personal contact, letters from living descendants. Revolutionary War records in the Library of Congress, Marriage Licenses in White County, Illinois, 1816-1840, by Lucy Bender, in the Library of Congress, and from county records in Carmi, Illinois.

The Robert Reuben Rudolph family Bible is in possession of Mrs. Chas. H. James, of Harrisburg, Illinois.

In 1922, I was in Illinois, and John Stanton Rudolph, (son of Robert Reuben Rudolph), gave me the following information:

The names of his maternal grandparents (Chisms) and the names of his paternal grandparents (Rudolphs), and all of their children, also his brothers, sisters, and who they married, and names of their children.

John Stanton Rudolph, also gave me the names of his wife's family - the Woods and Hust families.

In checking county records and cemeteries, and contacting the living relatives, I have found all his information correct.

The Black family Bible, copy of deeds and wills are in the possession of Revus Rudolph Black, 2205 You Place, S. E., Washington 20, D. C. (1945).

For further information on the Stokes Family, see Stokes (1201 - 1930) by J. Lemacks, D.D.

Arthur Johnson was born in Brunswick Co., Va., August 7, 1757.

Was married to Lucy Harmon in same county Jan. 2, 1777.

Served as Corporal and Sergeant in 4th and 8th Regts. Va. Volunteers in the War of the Revolution, and as a lieutenant in another organization, which we cannot name now.

After the Revolution moved to Kentucky, and about 1806 came to what is now Gibson Co., Indiana, about 1820 came to White Co., Ill.

Died just over the line in Wayne Co., Ill., at the home of his son-in-law, Robert Cates, Oct. 16, 1839 and was buried on the Cates farm near the present village of Mill Shoals.

On Monday Sept. 12, 1898, his remains were taken up by his descendants and reinterred in the Johnson Cemetery in White Co., Ill., four and one half miles east of Enfield, where a beautiful monument has been erected commemorating his services as a soldier in the war of the Revolution.

The inscription on the West Side of the monument list the following Battles he had part in,

Valley Forge, Brandywine, Paoli, Germantown,

Stony Point, Eutaw Springs and Yorktown.

(W. N. Johnson says that the death date should be Oct. 16, 1839, the description on monument gives it as of Dec. 13, 1839)

Arthur and Lucy Johnson had the following named children. My grandfather, John Johnson, was the eldest and as I only know the date of his birth, I will give the sons first and then the daughters.

John Johnson, born Sept. 7, 1779, Samuel, William, George W., Lewis, Benjamin, Zachary.

Henrietta Williams, Winnie Grisby, Lucy Montray, Nancy Cates, Betsy Tennyson.

There is a little uncertainty about Betsy Tennyson, as she married and remained in Kentucky, while all the others came to Indiana and some came to Illinois later.

I have attended all the remains of the descendants of Arthur Johnson, and have spared no pains to gather up all important facts concerning our history. I am a son of Dr. Martin Johnson, who was the second son of John Johnson, which makes me the third son of the second son of the first son of Arthur Johnson. I was born March 3, 1840.

(Signed) William N. Johnson.

The following letter written by J. L. Hosick, Elizabethtown, Illinois, August 9, 1943, to Miss Maisie Hosick, Washington, D.C.

I have your letter written to my mother, Mrs.
Millie E. Hosick (nee Jackson)

I am of the opinion that your great grandfather, James Hosick and my great grandfather, William Hosick were brothers.

William Hosick's father's name was Alexander
Hosick, born in Scotland and came to the states before the Revolutionary War. William Hosick was born in Virginia. He married Polly Turner in 1797.
They had ten children, namely: Elizabeth, Alexander,
Nancy, Polly, Nellie, Perlina, Joseph Turner,
Johnson, Matilda and Sally.

Joseph Turner is my grandfather and was born in Virginia June 9, 1812. They moved to Lexington, Ky.
for a short time on account of the slavery question they (and others) came in their own wagons, (prairie schooners) to Illinois in 1816. After crossing the Ohio they camped in the cave at Cave-in-Rock the first night. They continued to White County, Ill., near Enfield or Springerton. In 1827 they returned to Hardin County, settling at the mouth of Hosick

Creek one and one-half mile above Elizabethtown.

A. R. Matheny is a cousin. He is the present Assessor and Treasurer of Hardin Co. My father's name was Samuel Turner Hosick and he passed away in 1939. I am 54 years old.

The above may not be much help to you. If I can be of further assistance, call on me.

FRANK HOSICK

For County Superintendent of Schools.

In the election of a County Superintendent of Schools, it is important that a man of experience and education should be chosen. Frank Hosick, our fellow-editor of the Grayville Independent, is such a man and a vote for him is a vote for a competent man, and if elected to the office Frank will make a superintendent of ^{which} White County will be proud. The Following from Carmi Times is well said.

He has filled some of the best principal of the schools at Phillipstown, Enfield and Burnt Prairie. Wherever he has taught he gave satisfaction and many young men and women owe their start in life to Frank Hosick. He is firm in his convictions and honest in his intentions. His education and experience fit him well for the office he seeks. He is an all around business man and several months ago when he became the proprietor of the Grayville Independent, he was as much at home in the editors' sanctum as in the master's chair. He is related to some of the best families in the county and his many friends are working earnestly in his behalf.

(Letter to Margaret Rudolph, Carmi, Ill., from Chas. W. Briggs, Rochester, N.Y., Feb. 13th, 1897).

Mr. John Snyder of this city, a prominent member of a church society, called on me yesterday, and requested me to give him price of the Faulkner house and lot, 86 North Ave., I told him I had not the fixing of the price, that I was simply looking after the property for the interested parties, but that I thought, however, the parties would like to dispose of it.

I told Mr. Snyder that I had an opinion as to the value of the place, and that I would advise the parties to sell if an offer of $6,000 was made for the place. He requested me to write the parties. He said he thought the society would pay $5,000 cash for the house and lot. He said the church folks had talked about this lot and the lot next North of it, the Osgood lot.

The society own where their church and parsonage are on Grove Street. They desire to move their parsonage so that they can enlarge their church. They prefer the Faulkner lot to the Osgood. The Faulkner house and lot are now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wittrup. Mrs. Wittrup is one of the Faulkner heirs. I have said nothing to them about the talk with Mr. Snyder.

The Society wants a lot, and I think they will pay a fair price for one. I think this is an opportunity to sell. If advantage is not taken of this opportunity, another may not happen in a good while. I think at forced sale, not half the amount could be got for the place, that may now be had from the church society. Perhaps the $6,000 might be got from the church folks. What Mr. Osgood asks for his place I do not know. Mr. Osgood occupies his place himself. Write Mr. and Mrs. Wittrup, and consult other parties, See enclosed diagram.

Shall be pleased to hear from you. I suppose the property could not be sold without an order from the court. I write this to 19 interested parties.

Yours very truly,

Chas. W. Briggs.

THE BOOK OF STOKES (1201 - 1930)

By J. Lemacks, D. D.

The family is of Norman origin and claims to be a branch of the ancient and illustrious house of Montespedan, now apparently extinct. From old documents it appears that the removal to England was after the conquest, when honors and possessions were assigned the family there. Some of the name are found at the Court of King John at the beginning of the thirteenth century. It is interesting to note the variant spellings. Petro de Stokee witnesses two charters of King John in 1201 and again in 1206. Aleyn Stokes was one of the executors of the will of Edward, Prince of Wales, 1376. Adrian Stokes, "country gentleman", married Frances, Duchess of Suffolk, granddaughter of Henry VII, widow of Earl Grey, the mother of Lady Jane Grey, pretender to the English crown.

SIE ADAM DE STOKE.

This gentleman is the first from which our line is traced. He is first mentioned in 1301. In 1312 records in the tower of London show him possessed of the manore of Stoke and Rutishall, County Wilts.

The Rector of the Great Bedwin Church, Hungerford, Wilts, writes me Oct. 1931, that his monument and effigy, in full knightly armor, are still there as "treasured memorials." The rector gives a description too long to quote here. In the effigy, Sir Adam's legs are crossed which commonly indicated a crusader. We have no evidence of this, however.

THE GREAT PEDIGREE

This is at Stanshawes, and "is about three-fourths of a yard wide, and four and a half yards long, composed of several skins glued together. The arms amounting to over sixty coats (for different branches of the family - just as our own differs) are well emblazoned in colors, etc. At the head of the pedigree is the following shield; (here is a copy of the coat of arms in the Book). The Pedigree following it is the one given below. The Registrar of the Herald's Colleges writes me that in 1623 the Stokes of Stanshawes "registered a pedigree, and had confirmed to them the following arms, sable, a lion rampant, ermine." This is without doubt the pedigree above referred to and confirmed" to the family after many years' previous use.

The history of the Great Britain, Scotland,
Ireland, Wales, and the Isle of Man, from the

1. Sire Adam and Eva de Stokke.
2. Of this pair was born Thomas Stoke of Seend, Wilts, in the reign of Edward III.
3. After him came Thomas Stokes of the same place, in the 5th year of Richard II. 1381.
4. Next in line came John Stokes of Seend, also, Henry IV being King.
5. Thomas Stokes followed, of the same old family seat, in the time of Henry V.
6. Then followed John Stoke of the same place, in the 3rd year of Henry VI, 1425.
7. Succeeded by Thomas Stokes, in the 11th year of Henry VII, 1495.
8. His son, John Stokes, erected the chapel at Seend and was buried there in 1498. He married Alice _____ who sleeps beside him.
9. Their son, John Stokys, came next. He married Margery, daughter of John Nichols of Rundwire, Wilts.
10. For nearly, it is not quite 200 years, the the family had resided at Wiltshire, but now comes a change - a new settlement.
Christopher Stokes, who follows next, is the Stanshawes Place (called Stanshawes Court). Gloucestershire, England. The date 1566 is given, but I think this must have been the time of his death as his successor married, the first time in 1569. Christopher Stokes married Anne Lester of Christian Malford, Wilts.

11. On them was born Anthony Stokes, married first, Margaret, daughter of Richard Scrope, of Castle Comb of Wilts. No issue of her. The second marriage was to Jane, daughter of Richard Browning of Coaley, in Gloucestershire.
12. Next in the line was Christopher Stokes (2) who married Alice, daughter of John Parker of Barnwood. This was his first wife. The second was Barbara, daughter of Sir Thomas Snell.

And now, after some one hundred and twenty years incumbency of Stanshawes, there is another transplanting. Christopher Stokes (by family tradition a "younger son" of this same old family), is found in Virginia, in 1629; the date makes it evident that he was one of the sons of Christopher Stokes (2) and Alice Parker. Of him more will be said further on.

13. The line continued at Stanshawes for about two hundred and thirty-five years as follows; Samuel Stokes (brother of Christopher (3) the immigrant, who married Isabella, daughter of Richard Codrington of Dodington, Gloucestershire.
14. Edward Stokes, born 1729, Justice of the Peace, married first, Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Poole of Newron, Wilts; married second, Margaret, daughter of Henry Newton. No issue by her.
15. Richard Stokes, attorney at law, of Malne, Wilts, married Eleanor, daughter of Thomas Lambert of Boynton, Wilts.
16. Capt. Thomas Stokes of Stanshawes, married his cousin, Sarah, daughter of Abjohn Stokes of Titherton; she was born May 8, 1705, married Whitsun Week 1724.
17. Thomas Stokes of Stanshawes, also of Hartwick, near Shepton, married Anne, daughter of Major Adley. Died 1803.
18. Thomas Stokes of Bristol, attorney-at-law, married Sarah Prichard, of Hawksbury, Upton, died 1808.
19. Adrien Stokes of Stanshawes, who married Miss Rolph of Thornbury.

20. Dr. Thomas Stokes, who sold Stanshawes to R. N. Hooper, 1871.

Our family coat-of-arms consists of the following: Sable Shield, lion rampant, ermine, with forked tail; fresx with a demi-lion rampant. This is on authority of various genealogists.

IN AMERICA

1. ENGLISH AMERICAN LINE - Christopher Stokes (3) came to Virginia in 1629 and obtained a patent for land on the Charles (afterward called the York) river on July 21, 1635. He was a man of prominence, a member of the House of Burgesses for "Warwick River" in Oct. 1639. It seems he had been granted patents for other plantations, one of them lying upon that stream. He died some time before 1648, leaving four sons; Christopher (4), William, Francis and Thomas. His home was called New Pocosin on the York Peninsula.
2. The second son, William, was the only one having issue. He was a very large landholder. John and Sylvanus Stokes were his sons. A Ms. history of the family, "quoted by the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, July 1898), states that these two "were the ancestors of those of the name now living."

3. John Stokes was the progenitor of the Carolina Branches of the family. Of him came David Stokes (1). He was a Justice of the Peace of Lunenburg County, at its organization in 1746. He was born Oct. 23, 1707 and died Sept. 12, 1794. He married Sarah, grand-daughter of Col. Thomas Montford of Old Point Comfort. She was born Feb. 3, 1717, and died April 9, 1800. This couple had five sons and six daughters. John Stokes was the 9th child of David Stokes and Sarah Montford, born March 20, 1756.

(The foregoing is an excerpt from "The Book of Stokes", which was presented to Myra Gertrude Atkins by Mrs. J. Lemacks Stokes, Widow of the author).

IN AMERICA

In a copy of an abstract of Virginia Land patents, a will of Sylvanus Stokes was proven in Surrey in March, 1748. Of this branch, doubtless Sylvanus Stokes, whose will was dated Feb. 25, 1758 and proven in June 1766, was the father of a son Sylvanus who was the father of Young Stokes born in the year 1772, and emigrated to Kentucky.

Young Stokes (leaving other brothers in Kentucky) emigrated to White County, Illinois, about the year of 1812. In 1815 through his influence, Stokes Chapel was organized. The present church building was erected in the fall of 1925 to replace the building destroyed by a cyclone the 18th of March, 1925.

Young Stokes was the father of three sons.

1. John Mitchell Stokes, James G. Stokes and Samuel Stokes, and one daughter, Lucy Stokes who married Martin McHenry.

George L. Stokes was married to Sally Graham in 1850. To them were born six sons and two daughters: Martha Angelina; John E.; George L.; Henry G.; James M.; Sarah; Wm. R. and Thomas G.; (Thomas Graham).

Thomas G. Stokes (Thomas Graham), son of George L. Stokes, was born May 4, 1865, married Nora E. Elma Armstrong Stokes, the wife of James M. Stokes, was killed in the cyclone of the 18th of March 1925 - she was the daughter of Benjamin N. Armstrong, born in Kentucky, whose grandmother was a sister of General Sam Houston of Texas. James M. Stokes married the second time Nov. 3, 1928 to Mrs. Minnie Stocke.

Claude N. Stokes was married to Emilee Sonner, Dec. 20, 1913 - to them one daughter was born - Elma Gail, born April 13, 1915. D. at the University of Minnesota in June 1929.

Eula I. Stokes, oldest daughter, died in infancy.

Edna Maude Stokes, born Dec. 21, 1892, was married to Ray S. Brown of Woodhull, Illinois, November 17, 1920.

Stacie Marie Stokes was married to Earl Flannigan of Carbondale, Illinois, August 28, 1920.

STOKES CHAPEL, WHITE COUNTY, ILLINOIS (pages 2 and 3)

STOKES CHAPEL SOCIETY was organized about the year 1815 in a log hut, at the home of YOUNG STOKES, about one-quarter of a mile southeast of the present Chapel. John Davis was the Presiding Elder.

The Charter members were Young Stokes and wife, Charles Slocum and wife, Daniel McHenry and wife, Jacob Rudolph and wife, and Whitney Hilliard and wife.

They met for preaching services and prayer meetings for several years in the home of Young Stokes and others and then built a log house on the present site. The seats were made of split logs with hued strips for backs fastened on with wooden pins. This house was used for worship until the year 1868, when a frame building was erected.

Quite a number of members at present are great, and great-great grandsons and daughters of some of the original members.

Stokes Chapel held her Centennial in August, 1915, beginning Thursday the 13th and ending Sunday, the 18th.

(A copy of Stokes Chapel record is on file in the D.A.R. Library, Washington, D.C., also in Newberry Library, Chicago, Illinois, and in the Illinois State Historical Library, Springfield, Illinois.)-Ill. White County Records - 1943
